

1. Current Title & Duties	Isaac Tourgeman, Ph.D. Assistant Professor - Doctoral Program in Clinical Psychology Miami Campus
2. Brief Bio (up to 3 paragraphs)	Dr. Isaac Tourgeman “DrT” is an assistant professor at Albizu University Miami Campus. There, he is co-coordinator of the neuropsychology track and Faculty Advisor for the Neuropsychology Club. Dr. Tourgeman is also an adjunct professor for the Master’s in Speech Pathology Program. He is also a Certified Brain Injury Specialist by the Brain Injury Association of America. He is a member of multiple professional organizations including: National Academy of Neuropsychology (NAN), International Neuropsychological Society (INS), Hispanic Neuropsychological Society American and Congress of Rehabilitation Medicine (ACRM).
3. Research / Research Interests	Dr. Tourgeman’s research interests lie in studying the utilization of technology in healthcare, evaluating the neuropsychological consequences of acquired brain injury (specifically traumatic brain injury and concussion), neuropsychological assessment in forensic settings, and role of acculturation in cognitive and emotional functioning.
4. Academics, Education, Certifications	Postdoctoral Fellowship Design Neuroscience Center- Neurorehabilitation/Neuropsychology Fellowship Clinical Internship University of Miami/ Jackson Memorial Hospital- Adult Neuropsychology Doctor of Philosophy in Clinical Psychology Nova Southeastern University, Center for Psychological Studies Master of Science in Clinical Psychopharmacology Nova Southeastern University, Center for Psychological Studies Master of Science in Clinical Psychology Nova Southeastern University, Center for Psychological Studies Bachelor of Science in Psychology Florida International University

