Bachelor of Arts in Elementary Education

Bachelor of Arts in Elementary Education

Overview

Program Benefits of Albizu University

Albizu University’s Bachelor of Arts in Elementary Education prepares students to teach in various elementary schools. The 124-credit program includes a 10-credit internship and emphasizes understanding human behavior and cultural diversity in education.

The Elementary Education Bachelor’s program offers day, evening, and hybrid classes for flexibility. Taught by experienced faculty, students can earn credits through CLEP exams or receive credit for prior learning and practicum placement.

A maximum of 60 credits from a two-year or a four-year accredited institution may be transferred to our Bachelor of Arts in Elementary Education program, as long as the student has met the program’s grade point average (GPA) requirement and obtained a grade of “C” or above. To meet graduation requirements, students must maintain a 2.5 GPA on a 4.0 scale. As graduates of the program, students receive ESOL Endorsement and the option to obtain the Reading Endorsement by completing two additional courses.
